LAST MEETING
N 22 24 [Purdue]
Nov. 9, 2019 • Evanston, Ill.

THE OPENING DRIVE

RECAP THE DUB

Northwestern beat Nebraska for the third time in the last four meetings ... It was the eighth time since 2011 a game between Northwestern and Nebraska was decided by one score ... Nebraska was the first team to rush for more than 100 yards against the 'Cats this season ... QB Peyton Ramsey threw for multiple touchdowns for the first time in a NU uniform ... The Wildcats have trailed at one point of all three wins this season.

THE MATCH UP

Pat Fitzgerald is 7-4 against Purdue since taking over as the Wildcats' head coach in 2006. Fitzgerald and the 'Cats have won seven of the last nine match ups against the Boilermakers, including four straight contests at Ross-Ade Stadium. Northwestern has not lost in West Lafayette since 2007, the second year of Fitzgerald's tenure. Purdue snapped a five-game skid against the Wildcats in 2019 with a 24-22 win at Ryan Field.

The Wildcats pulled off a 31-27 win at Ross-Ade on Aug. 30, 2018. Sophomore Jeremy Larkin ran for 143 yards and 2 TD in his first career start, a primetime Thursday night season opener. He never played another Big Ten snap. He was diagnosed with cervical stenosis weeks later and finished his undergraduate career as a student coach. He is currently a defensive graduate assistant for the 'Cats.

STATEMENT DEFENSE

Northwestern's defense has made a statement through the first two games of the season:

- Northwestern's defense has not allowed a point in the second half this season. It's the first time it has earned that feat in a three-game stretch during the Pat Fitzgerald era (2006-present). The Wildcats have not surrendered a touchdown in the second half of a game since the 13:20 mark of the 4th quarter vs. Minnesota on Nov. 23, 2019.
- The defense has allowed 55 yards of touchdown drives (3 total TDs) this season, avg. length of drives: 18.3 yards.
- Northwestern ranks in the Top-30 nationally in total defense (18th; 314.0), rushing defense (29th; 121.7), scoring defense (7th; 12.0), team passing efficiency defense (3rd; 83.01), turnover margin (13th; 1.0), redzone defense (8th; 0.636).
- Northwestern has recorded three-straight multi-interception games for the first time since 2017 (three vs. Minnesota on Nov. 18, two at Illinois on Nov. 25, two vs. Kentucky on Dec. 29 in the Music City Bowl).
- Northwestern's defense has forced at least two turnovers in four straight games dating back to last season, which is the longest stretch since week two of the 2017 campaign.
- Linebackers Blake Gallagher, Paddy Fisher and Chris Bergin each recorded at least 10 tackles for the second straight game in the win over Nebraska. It was first time Northwestern had three players reach double-digit tackles in back-to-back outings since its annual tilt against Illinois on Nov. 30, 2013 and vs. California in the 2014 season opener on Aug. 30, 2014. NU hasn't had three players compile 10+ tackles twice in a season since 2013 (vs. Illinois on Nov. 30, 2013 & vs. Iowa on Oct. 26, 2013).

GAME NOTES

#FITZ100

Dan and Susan Jones Family Head Football Coach Pat Fitzgerald picked up his 100th career victory with the win over Maryland. His 102 career victories are the 25th most by an active FBS coach. All 102 wins have come as the head coach of the Wildcats, which places him seventh on the list of active FBS coaches who have collected their wins at the same school. Fitzgerald is one of eight active coaches to be the all-time winningest coach at their current school and ranks fourth on that list. The 2013 Gator Bowl victory was Fitzgerald's 50th career win, making him NU's all-time winningest coach.

OFFENSIVE OVERVIEW

For the first time since the 2007 season, Northwestern has a new offensive play caller. Mike Bajakian "Jake" was hired as offensive coordinator on Dec. 11, 2019. Here's an overview of the new offense:

- Northwestern's ground game ranks 29th nationally with 205.3 yards per game on the ground this season. That is up from 180.1 YPG last season.
- Northwestern has scored at least 20 points in each of its first three games against Big Ten opponents this season, the first time it has done so since 2012 (44 vs. Indiana on Sept. 29, 28 vs. Penn State on Oct. 6, 21 vs. Minnesota on Oct. 13).
- Eight of Northwestern's 11 touchdowns this season have come on the ground with eight different Wildcats finding pay dirt. Isaiah Bowser (1 REC, 1 RUSH) , Jesse Brown (2 RUSH) and Drake Anderson (2 RUSH) are the only ones with multiple touchdowns.
- Northwestern scored 43 points vs. Maryland. It was the first time NU had scored 40-plus points against a Big Ten opponent since November 25, 2017.
- Northwestern's 30 points in the first half vs. Maryland were the most scored by the Wildcats since scoring 31 in their 2018 season opener at Purdue (August 30, 2018).

DRIVE (AND) TIME

Northwestern opened the second half vs. Nebraska with a 10-play, 61-yard touchdown drive, the fourth touchdown drive by the Wildcats this season of 10+ plays. Both of Northwestern's touchdown drives in the first half vs. Iowa on Oct. 31 went for 75+ yards. Through the first three games of the season, Northwestern has six touchdown drives of at least 75 yards, it had nine throughout the entire 2019 season. The Wildcats are owning the clock through three games. Northwestern ranks 25th nationally, and fourth in the Big Ten, in time of possession, averaging 32:47 in T.O.P.

WELCOME TO THE PICK CLUB

The Wildcats have recorded eight interceptions through the first three games of this season. The last time they had eight picks in the first three games of a season was 2013 (10 INT). Six different Wildcats have recorded an interception this season. The last time Northwestern hit that mark was in 2017, when in a full season eight different players snatched a pick. However, NU only recorded two interceptions through its first three games that season. Brandon Joseph (3) is the lone NU player with multiple interceptions. JR Pace, AJ Hampton, Coco Azema, Blake Gallagher and Chris Bergin each have one.

PRESIDENT OF THE PICK CLUB, BRANDON JOSEPH

Brandon Joseph is the president of the Pick Club with three interceptions. Joseph is the first Big Ten player to record at least three interceptions in the first three games of the season since Ohio State's Malik Hooker and Marshon Lattimore both did so in 2016. In the last 10 years, Joseph is one of only four FBS first-years to record three interceptions through the first three games of the season (Syracuse's Andre Cisco in 2018, Virginia Tech's Brandon Facyson in 2013 and Texas Tech's Jarvis Phillips in 2010). Joseph is the first NU first-year with an interception in back to back games since Bryan Heinz did so in 2003. He ranks second in the country with three picks.

GAME NOTES

LET'S LOOK AT THE LINEBACKERS

Linebackers Blake Gallagher, Paddy Fisher and Chris Bergin each recorded at least 10 tackles for the second straight game in the win vs. Nebraska. It was the first time Northwestern had three players reach double-digit tackles in back-to-back outings since its annual tilt against Illinois on Nov. 30, 2013 and vs. California in the 2014 season opener on Aug. 30, 2014. NU hasn't had three players compile 10+ tackles twice in a season since 2013 (vs. Illinois on Nov. 30, 2013 & vs. Iowa on Oct. 26, 2013). The trio has combined for 42% (84-of-200) of NU's tackles this season.

Paddy Fisher has 346 career tackles, the most of any active Big Ten player and currently the third-most of any active FBS player, trailing only West Virginia's Tony Fields II (352) and Texas Tech's Colin Schooler (350) . Since Fitzgerald has been the head coach, no Wildcat has tallied more tackles.

Fisher finished with 13 tackles in the Nebraska win, the 12th time he has tallied 10-plus tackles in a game (the most by an active Big Ten player). Fisher also made 11 tackles last week vs. Iowa, marking the third time in his career that he has collected 10+ tackles in consecutive games. He last achieved this feat in 2018 against Ohio State in the Big Ten Championship game and against Utah in the Holiday Bowl.

Fellow senior linebacker Blake Gallagher has been in the top two for the Wildcats in tackles in each of the last two seasons and currently has 277 career tackles, the second-most of any active Big Ten player behind Fisher. Gallagher tallied a career-high 14 tackles in the Nebraska win. He ranks third in the B1G with 9.7 tackles per game .

Chris Bergin posted a career high-12 tackles in the win at Iowa and followed it up vs. Nebraska with 11 tackles, 1.5 TFL, two pass break ups and his first career interception. He was named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week for his performance vs. Nebraska.

GROUND GAME

Northwestern has leaned on its running game through the first three contests. The Wildcats have tallied 151 rushing attempts compared to 75 passing attempts. The Wildcats have compiled 11 plays from scrimmage that have gone for 20-plus yards with seven of those coming on the ground. Northwestern's three longest offensive plays this season have been rushing touchdowns, including Drake Anderson's 41-yard scamper for a score vs. Nebraska.

Northwestern has scored eight of its 11 touchdowns this season on the ground. A closer look at some of the rushers:

Isaiah Bowser scored a 1-yard touchdown run on the Wildcats' first offensive drive of the Maryland game, his seventh-career rushing touchdown and first since November 17, 2018 at Minnesota, when he scored twice. He hauled in his first-career receiving touchdown in the third quarter vs. the Terps on a 7-yard pass from Peyton Ramsey. He has been the go-to back this season, averaging 24 carries in the two games. Bowser is the first NU player to record a rushing and receiving touchdown in the same game since Riley Lees did so vs. Utah in the 2018 Holiday Bowl (Dec. 31, 2018).

Drake Anderson made the fourth start of his career in the win vs. Nebraska. He carried the rock a team-high 18 times for a 89 yards, which included an NU season-long 41-yard TD run. He leads the 'Cats with 193 yards on the ground this season, averaging 5.5 yards per carry - most for anyone with 10-plus carries. Anderson is responsible for four of NU's 13 20-plus yard plays this year.

Evan Hull scored his fifth-career rushing touchdown on a 30-yard run in the fourth quarter vs. Maryland. Four of Hull's five career touchdown runs have gone for at least 30 yards. Hall snagged a career-best two passes for 27 yards in the win vs. Nebraska.

Jesse Brown recorded his first career multi-touchdown game with two rushing touchdowns in the Iowa win, bringing his career total to four. His last touchdown came against Illinois on Nov. 25, 2017 via a career-long 18-yard run. The last Wildcat to record their first multi-rushing touchdown game during their senior season was Trevor Siemian, who scored three rushing touchdowns in a win at Penn State on Sept. 28, 2014.

BEST IN THE BIG TEN

Since the 2017 season, Peyton Ramsey has accounted for 58 total touchdowns (45 passing, 15 rushing), the second-most among any active player in the Big Ten.

Ramsey has thrown for at least 200 passing yards in 18 games over his career, which leads all active Big Ten quarterbacks.

Peyton Ramsey, NU	60
Tanner Morgan, MINN	44

FAMILAR FOE

Peyton Ramsey has experience playing against the Boilermakers. The new Northwestern QB squared off for the Old Oaken Bucket twice in his career at Indiana. Ramsey and the Hoosiers went 1-1 in those contests. A look at Ramsey's numbers in the former rivalry game:

- Combined: 59 completions, 65.5%, 682 passing yards, 4 TD, 1 INT, 3 rushing TD
- Tallied career-best 36 completions in 2018
- Accounted for five TD (3 passing, 2 rushing) in 2019 win

Peyton Ramsey is averaging 204.0 yards of total offense in the first three games

MORE ON THE NEW Q DEBUT

Graduate transfer Peyton Ramsey made an impression in his debut, completing 23-of-30 passes for 212 yards, TD, while rushing for 47 yards and a score:

- Has completed 10-or-more passes in all three games this season. He has done so in 29 games during his career.
- He has found 12 different receivers this season, including seven in the opener for multiple catches. The last time Northwestern had that many receivers catch two or more passes in a single game was the 2018 Big Ten Championship, when eight different receivers combined for 21 receptions.
- Ramsey is the first Wildcat quarterback to throw for at least 200 yards in his program debut since Dan Persa vs. Vanderbilt (Sept. 4, 2010)
- He is the first NU quarterback to win in his first start since Clayton Thorson vs. Stanford on September 9, 2015.

Brandon Joseph leads the Pick Club with three INTs

KEEPING UP WITH THE GROUND GAME:

Through three games, the Wildcat rushing offense ranks fourth in the Big Ten and 29th best in the nation, averaging 205.3 rushing yards per game. Drake Anderson ranks 8th in the Big Ten with 193 yards on the ground. Northwestern has racked up 616 yards on the ground this season which is the sixth most for a Northwestern program through three games since 2000.

YOU GET A TFL, YOU GET A TFL!

Northwestern has been sharing the love in opposing backfields, as 10 different players have registered at least 1.0 tackle for loss in its first three games, which ranks third in the Big Ten Conference.

THE LIST - 1.0 OR MORE

Isaiah Bowser is the lone Wildcat with a rushing and receiving touchdown

COMEBACK 'CATS

Northwestern has trailed at some point in all three wins this season with the largest being a 17-point deficit at Iowa. Northwestern overcoming the 17 points at Iowa marked its largest comeback win since Dec. 31, 2018, when NU trailed 20-3 vs. Utah in the 2018 Holiday Bowl before coming back to win 31-20. It was NU's largest comeback win in a conference game since Oct. 24, 2009, when it rallied from 28-3 vs. Indiana to win 29-28.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON

Sophomore running back Drake Anderson had a breakout campaign in 2019 as a redshirt first year. Anderson rushed for 634 yards, which is the fourth most by an NU rookie. Drake's father Damien Anderson, NU's second all-time rusher (4,485), tallied 537 yards in his first college season. Drake Anderson posted 4.1 yards per carry and found pay dirt three times. His best game came in the home opener, rushing for a career-high 141 yards on 26 carries.

Northwestern's defense has not given up a point in the second half of a game this season

GAME NOTES

MAKING IT RAINE

Northwestern made the switch from Superback to Tight End in the 2020 offseason and with that broght graduate transfer (FAU) John Raine. Raine has tallied the third most receptions of any NU pass catcher this season, including a five-grab performance in the opner. It was the fifth time in Raine's career that he had five -or-more grabs in a game and only the third time he went over the 50-yard mark for receving yards (53). His five catches are the most by a Wildcat receiver in their NU debut since 2000, when Jon Schweighardt caught five passes for 43 yards as a true first-year in the season-opener vs. Northern Illinois (Aug. 31, 2000). Raine hauled in his first TD in a Northwestern unifrom, and eighth of his career, in the win over Nebraska. It was the first TD grab by a NU tight end/superback since Cam Green has one in the Big Ten title game on Dec. 1, 2018.

CHARLIE AND THE FIELD GOAL FACTORY

Senior kicker Charlie Kuhbander has found himself all over the Northwestern record book. Kuhbander ranks in the top-10 all-time at NU for field goal percentage, field goals made, points kicking, extra points made and extra points percentage.

KUHBANDER RANKS IN PROGRAM HISTORY
Career Fleld Goal Percentage	5th - 72.0%
Career Field Goals Made	9th - 31
Career Points Kicking	5th - 191
Career Extra Points Made	2nd - 98
Career Extra Point Percentage	3rd - 98%

Kuhbander went 10-for-14 on field goals during the 2019 season with a long of 44 yards that came against UNLV (9/14). He was 6-for-7 at Ryan Field last season.

Kuhbander went 3-for-3 on field goals in the opener. Two of his field goals came from 43 yards out, marking the first time in his career that he has connected on multiple field goals from 40-or-more yards out. He was named Big Ten Special Teams Player of the Week for the second time in his career.

GILLIKIN IS AS GOOD AS IT GETS

Northwestern long snapper Tyler Gillikin is one of a kind. The fifth-year senior has been Northwestern's starting long snapper since 2017. This fall the Atlanta, Ga., native is balancing Big Ten football and medical school. Gillikin was accepted to NU's Feinberg School of Medicine and has already started classes. He finished his undergraduate career with a 3.9 GPA as a biological sciences major. He is a semifinalist for the William V. Campbell Trophy (Best football scholar-athlete in the nation) and on the Patrick Mannelly Award Watch List (Best FBS senior long snapper). He is the only Power Five starter currently enrolled in medical school.

ADAMS BOMB

Punter Derek Adams was a three-year starter at Kent State, twice earning All-MAC honors. Last season for the Golden Flashes, Adams averaged 43.1 yards per punt and placed 20 of his 59 punts inside the 20. His career long is a 77-yard punt he booted against Akron in 2017. The Manheim, Pa., native earned MAC East Division Special Teams Player of the Week honors four times during his career and left Kent State ranked third all-time in career punting average (41.7). In three games with the 'Cats he has punted 14 times for an average of 42.4 yards with seven punts landing inside the 20 and two punts going for over 50 yards. Hunter Johnson | Jr. | Brownsburg, Ind./Brownsburg/Clemson

HIGH PRAISE FOR THE NEWCOMERS

Northwestern's 2020 recruiting class ranked 47th nationally according to 247Sports, tying the 2014 recruiting class as the highest in program history. The 2014 class featured current NFL players Clayton Thorson, Justin Jackson, and Blake Hance. The 2020 class is headlined by local four-star recruit Peter Skoronski (Park Ridge, Ill./ Maine South), who is the fourth-highest ranked recruit in program history. Seven members of the 17-player class enrolled early in January of 2020.

GETTING IT DONE IN THE CLASSROOM

Last fall, NU placed a Big Ten-best 57 players on the Academic All-Big Ten team. According to the NCAA's Graduation Success Rate (GSR) released in the fall of 2019, Northwestern Football was one of five Division I programs to earn a 100% mark and became the first program from a Power Five Conference to achieve the accomplishment. The Wildcats have ranked in the Top-2 for GSR among FBS schools for nine consecutive years.

CELEBRATING THE 'CATS

The 2020 season marks notable anniversaries for two of the best seasons in program history. It is the 25th anniversary since the Wildcats captivated the country by upsetting Notre Dame in the 1995 season opener before going undefeated in Big Ten play, winning the conference championship and earning a berth to the 1996 Rose Bowl. This season also marks 20 years since Northwestern won a share of the 2000 Big Ten championship with a 6-2 Big Ten record. The Wildcats were led by running back Damien Anderson, father of current Wildcat running back Drake Anderson. Current running backs coach Louis Ayeni was a member of the 2000 team.

GAME NOTES

KEEP THE PENALTIES TO A MINIMUM:

Over the years, Pat Fitzgerald's teams have been among the most disciplined in the country when it comes to not committing penalties. Since 2013, the Wildcats have finished in the Top-40 in the nation in both the fewest penalties committed per game, as well as the fewest penalty yards per game. Two years ago, during the Wildcats' run to the Big Ten Championship in 2018, NU ranked first in the nation in both fewest penalties per game and fewest penalty yards per game.

FIRST-CAREER STARTS:

Northwestern listed a total of 12 first-years/redshirt first-years on this week's two-deep depth chart ... Northwestern started three first years in the season opener ... LT Peter Skoronski, DB Rod Heard II and S Brandon Joseph each made their first-career starts. They are the first Northwestern rookies to start in a season opener since Rashawn Slater (RT), Paddy Fisher (MLB) and Samdup Miller did so on September 2, 2017 in a win over Nevada ... On offense, Slater appeared at right tackle as a redshirt first-year in what was the first of 30-consecutive starts over the 2017-19 seasons. Slater declared for the 2021 NFL Draft this past August ... On defense, Miller started as a true first-year in what was the first of 35-consecutive starts at defensive end, Fisher started at middle linebacker and has made 38 starts over his career, the most of any active Wildcat player.

In the last six season openers, Northwestern has had multiple players make their first-career starts on both sides of the ball (additional info can be found on the right) ... Northwestern had five players make their first career start in the opener, including LT Peter Skoronski, DB Rod Heard II, DT Jason Gold. Jr., S Brandon Joseph and DE Earnest Brown IV. Senior Joe Spivak made his first career start in the Iowa win.

STARTING FAST:

In their first career starts for the 'Cats, safety Brandon Joseph and corner Rod Heard made some noise. The duo were NU's top tacklers on the night as Joseph finished with a career-high and team best seven stops, including a tackle for loss, while Heard had six tackles for loss and a pass break up. Jason Gold, Jr. had a tackle for loss in the first quarter before leaving the game with an injury. Earnest Brown IV notched a quarterback hurry. Joseph picked up Big Ten Co-Freshman of the Week honors in the Iowa win after notching two interceptions.

COVID SHUTDOWN:

Due to Northwestern being on the quarter system, the Wildcats have traditionally started spring ball in the end of February. The Wildcats were able to get eight spring practices in during the 2020 spring ball schedule before begin shutdown for COVID-19.

CAPTAINS CAROUSEL:

For the first time during the Pat Fitzgerald era team captains will be decided on a weekly basis. Previously, the team voted on captains at the start of each season.

Already the second-longest tenured Big Ten head coach at the age of 45, Pat Fitzgerald's 14 seasons at the helm of Northwestern have been spent building upon the tradition he helped establish as a Hall-of-Fame linebacker for the Wildcats in the mid-1990's. Characterized by his motivational skills, enthusiasm and passion for all things Northwestern, Fitzgerald has shaped Chicago's Big Ten Team into one that consistently achieves excellence in all three phases of the student-athlete experience: academics, athletics and community outreach.

Fitzgerald has built the Wildcats' program into a consistent winner. The 2018 Wildcats claimed the program's first-ever Big Ten West Division title and berth in the Big Ten Championship game with a program-tying eight Big Ten wins. Fitzgerald was named the consensus Big Ten Head Coach of the Year and a finalist for the 2018 Dodd Trophy.

Fitzgerald has led the Wildcats to nine bowl appearances in his 14 seasons and has guided the 'Cats to four of their five bowl wins in program history. Most recently in postseason play, Chicago's Big Ten Team mounted a dramatic come-from-behind victory over No. 17 Utah in the 2018 Holiday Bowl by scoring a bowl record 28 points in the third quarter to claim their third-straight bowl win for the first time in program history.

Away from the gridiron, Fitzgerald's players have achieved at the highest levels in the classroom, last fall placing a Big Ten-best 57 players on the Academic All-Big Ten team. According to the NCAA's Graduation Success Rate (GSR) released in the fall of 2019, Northwestern Football was one of five Division I programs to earn a 100% mark and became the first program from a Power Five Conference to achieve the accomplishment. The Wildcats have ranked in the Top-two for GSR among FBS schools for nine consecutive years.

NU also goes to great lengths to make a difference in the community. Fitzgerald, his family and his players partake in countless charitable events, impacting the NU and Evanston communities through their participation in Northwestern Dance Marathon, Special Olympics, Misericordia, the NU chapter of Uplifting Athletes, weekly school and children's hospital visits, and dozens of other organizations. Fitzgerald was named the honorary coach of the 2017 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team.

As a player in 1995, Fitzgerald was the leader of a suffocating Wildcats defensive unit that led the nation in scoring defense and anchored NU's storybook run to the Big Ten championship and Rose Bowl. He capped the year by winning both the Nagurski and Bednarik Awards as the nation's top defensive player and also was the Big Ten, Chevrolet and Sports Illustrated-Defensive Player of the Year. Fitzgerald accomplished all of this despite suffering a broken leg in the penultimate regular-season game.

A graduate of Orland Park's (Ill.) Carl Sandburg High School and a 2003 inductee to the Northwestern Athletics Hall of Fame, Fitzgerald resides in Northfield with his wife, Stacy, and three sons, Jack, born in November 2004, Ryan, born in September 2006, and Brendan, born in February 2009.
